After publication of this article [1], concerns have been raised about the methodology presented by a third party. The expressed concerns were as follows:

- The paper requires elaboration on the research question.
- The paper requires improvements in the methodology: elaborate on reported usage of the Arksey and O'Malley scoping review framework and Joanna Briggs Institute Reviewers' Manual, and the Systematic Review and Meta-analysis: Extension for Scoping Review (PRISMA-ScR).
- The paper requires explicit inclusion criteria.
- The paper requires refinement of the discussion section.
- The paper requires confirmation on the articles included in the review.

The original article has been updated by the authors. Extensive corrections have been made, Fig. 1 and Additional File 1 have been updated, and an Additional File 5 (Initial data charting tool) has been added.
